Baliem Valley Adventure Trek - Irian / Papua

Our trip to Baliem Valley is a journey into a deeper reality. Experience the so-called stone age cultures and way of live of the ferocious- looking yet friendly Dani tribesmen in their spectacular highland.

Trekking up down the hill to their villages to discover their primitive ways of life, complex social organization and agricultural system as well as considerable engineering skill in constructing their suspension bridges and homes.

Seeing the men dressing solely in the "koteka" or penis gourd, with pig teeth pushed through their noses and their bodies decorated in clay-and-grease war-paint, while the women wear the grass skirt. They are, however, extremely fond of body ornamentation and decorate themselves elaborately with feathers and shells, especially for celebrations.
